

PUSD Board To Appoint New Trustee

On decision of the Placentia Unified School District Board of Trustees at a specially-called Friday night meeting, the vacant board seat left by the death of Salvador Zavala will be opened to nominations and suggestions from the public.

The policy closely follows a similar program formulated by trustees of the North Orange County Community College District of which Zavala was a member. Zavala also had been reelected to that board a month before he died following brain surgery.

PUSD trustees Friday worked out a questionnaire to be immediately released to the public for persons who wish to nominate themselves for the post. All four board members indicated they will accept telephone calls as will the district office on suggestions and recommendations for the opening.

In a timeline adopted formally by the trustees, nominations will be accepted in writing until 7:45 p.m. Monday, April 25 at the district administrative offices, 1301 East Orangethorpe Avenue, Placentia. Names of applicants will be made public following the board meeting that Monday night and posted Tuesday at all schools.

Board members will study the applications at a meeting Wednesday, April 27. Oral interviews will be held beginning at 9 a.m., Saturday, April 30 and are open to the public. An announcement could be made on that date.

State law gives the board 30 days time from the vacancy, to fill the post.

The PUSD board formally decided against an election, which also was its prerogative, because of the expense and because it would leave the position open until November, the earliest possible election date.

However, if the public is not satisfied with the board's selection, an election can be called mandated by petition.

PUSD board president, John Baiducci said that he had received legal information that petitions duly signed and verified by 5 per cent of the number of voters who participated in the last election, could call for a vote. In an extremely tight turn-out on March 8, 1977 that would be the 199 signatures of registered voters.

Signers of the petition would not need to have voted in the last election, but must be bona fide registered voters, he stated.

It has been estimated that an election will cost around $20,000.

The board appointee will not be able to vote following his selection for the first 30 days to give the electorate time to petition. If an election is called, the appointment would then be negated.

A first nomination was received at the Friday night meeting from Rod Jimenez, spokesman for the La Jolla section of the school district, who nominated Stanley Interrante, Interrante, who was the runnerup in the election March 8, receiving the third highest number of votes, also attended the meeting. No others were in attendance.

Trustees outlined that anyone wishing to nominate for the vacancy may pick up an application at the district office or any school in the district. The forms consist of a questionnaire listing name, address, phone and occupation.

Also years of residence in the district, number of children and ages, number of children in district schools, activities and positions held is included.

Mrs. Jean Pappas, vice president of the board, asked that education be deleted from the questionnaire. "I think their occupation will indicate their education," Mrs. Pappas stated her opinion. "And I don't think it is something I am looking for. I don't care if they have a BA or not a BA or high school," Mrs. Pappas stated. "I don't think that their education proves that they reside in the district and they are a known quantity in the district. If they've been a resident and involved in the community, I don't care less."

IN SUPPORT OF INTERRANTE

There may never be an appointment as good as an election. Especially when an appointment could invalidate an election.

Thus could follow the action of the trustees of the Placentia Unified School District who are about to make an appointment.

A month and a half ago there was a school board election. Two candidates were selected by the democratic process. Other good candidates, who nevertheless made the effort of going through the arduous of a campaign, had not sufficiently caught the public's attention. They did not win.

Among these and next in line in number of votes was Stanley Interrante, Interrante is a deputy sheriff, which would indicate that in that line of work, at least something is known of his life and character.

Interrante also has earned two degrees past his high school graduation, appears to be an avid reader and a man who keeps himself informed on a variety of subjects.

So much for elections. Let's talk about McFadden School.

McFadden, in a landmark decision made by our school board has been declared obsolete. While trustees are still building schools, they suddenly have one too many.

That's about as incongruous and as expensive as new math which plagued at least one generation before anybody would do anything about it.

But there is more wrong with the McFadden situation than faulty arithmetic. There is also something wrong with the teaching climate...in this big public class that we continuously conduct in the democratic process.

Any good teacher knows, teaching by example can be a powerful approach.

Just what is it that the people of this district and the residents of La Jolla neighborhood in particular have learned from the lesson of McFadden as taught by our school board?

Negotiations At Standstill

Placentia library district employees, seeking additional salary raises and benefits besides those already a part of their salary scales, have not as yet responded to a counter offer made recently by library trustees.

The original demands from the employees, opening negotiations, was for wage hikes between 21.6 and 26.1 per cent, paid dependent medical insurance premiums, paid employee and dependent dental insurance coverage and a 10 per cent shift differential for employees who work after the hour of 6 p.m.

Monday through Saturdays or any time on Sunday.

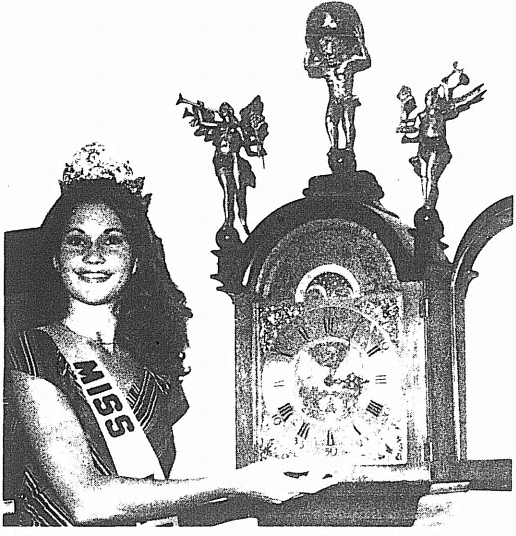

Employees also are seeking long term disability insurance and full pay-off on accumulated sick leave upon termination after three years full time service up to a maximum of 50 days.

Trustees have replied with a three year proposal granting a 22.1 per cent increase. The breakdown for the three year period would be: first year, 7 per cent raise and pay-off of accumulated sick leave; second, 8.4 per cent boost and dental program for employees and dependents and third year maximum increase of 6.7 per cent including a long term disability program.

Employees also are seeking that the "special library district" be dissolved and the service merged with the North Orange County district to provide them higher wages.

Trustees countered the "shift differential" in their counter proposal, and the three dependent medical insurance to use the latter would apply to only three present employees, it was pointed out.

MISS PLACENTIA, pretty Beth O'Neil, is getting a good example here by moving her clock ahead an hour to 3 a.m. The proper time to do just that is 2 a.m. Sunday, April 24, the beginning of daylight savings time. Jimenez Backs Interrante For PUSD Trustee Seat

Rodriguez Jimenez, popular leader in the La Jolla section of the city, became the first person to nominate a candidate to fill the seat on the board of trustees of the Placentia Unified School District, left vacant by the death of Salvador Zavala.

Jimenez spoke at the special Friday night PUSD board meeting, called to make a decision on how the vacancy would be filled.

Jimenez placed in nomination the name of Stanley Interrante, who came in third in the March 8, 1977 PUSD trustee election which filled two posts. Interrante had been backed in the election by a wide segment of Mexican American groups.

Jimenez said that he was considering and listening to the views of other people who are qualified, but perhaps they did not work as assiduously as Mr. Interrante did at the last election. And certainly, I believe this is a good thing, enough knowledge in so far as the school situation is so far as knowing what is required of a person to be an elected official.

With his knowledge and qualifications, I feel he has all the ingredients to make a good board member. He has a high school and a bachelor's and master's degrees in public administration, he is a well-known college teacher, he is a well-known in law enforcement and in the city.

A vote in the election, I think, would indicate that the community and the rest of the school district certainly this would be a good thing, enough knowledge in so far as the school situation is so far as knowing what is required of a person to be an elected official.

With his knowledge and qualifications, I feel he has all the ingredients to make a good board member. He has a high school and a bachelor's and master's degrees in public administration, he is a well-known college teacher, he is a well-known in law enforcement

Italians Plan Return Visit

BY JANE CASWELL

Following a period of correspondence, a group of school children from Placentia Italy visited their pen pals in Placentia in the spring of 1975.

Staying in private homes, the young Italians were treated to some of the Southland's sights before going home with quite a few Placentia hearts. A Placentia delegation returned the visit in June 1976. They were treated to a whirlwind schedule of sights and a feast. While parents, of the young stars themselves, provided an extra for the journey, the Italians provided food, lodging, transportation, and tickets for a

Tyrone Branyan Signs With Texas

Tyrone Branyan, who led El Dorado High School to the CIF Southern Section 2-A title, two consecutive seasons and as a Cypress College standout was selected most valuable player in the Southern California Conference (SCC) this year, has elected to continue his outstanding basketball career at the University of Texas.

Born in Cushing, Oklahoma, Branyan moved to Placentia with his family in 1965. After an outstanding basketball career with the Hawks, the 6 foot 7 star moved onto Cypress College courts where he has won almost every honor open in his sport.

Branyan's decision to sign a Letter of Intent with the University of Texas reportedly came following a decision between the Lone Star State School and playing ball with the Titans at California State University in Fullerton.

Branyan leaves Cypress as the Chargers' all time leading scorer and as team captain this year was the only player to finish in double figures, averaging 20.6 points a contest.

Housing Crisis

Homeowner States His Home Invaded

BY BETTY MEAD

Placentia's housing dilemma for lower income families, described in last week's Courier, also has taken an angry turn as at least two homeowners report that they have been illegally invaded.

The two homes involved, in slightly different neighborhoods, apparently were approached for different reasons, but produced about the same effect—doubt, suspicion and in some instance, fear.

Language proved to be a barrier in one episode, as neither of the two official persons sent to make the inspections was bilingual.

Recent inspections reported to The Courier, in all cases were made by the same two individuals, one from the city's building inspection department and the other from Orange County Environmental Health.

Victor Newton, Chief Building Official for the city of Placentia, who has just hired a new inspector, reported that he has no interest in employing one who can speak Spanish.

"That would be discriminatory," he declared. He stated that he preferred to use bilingual personnel from the city's police department and Social Services but offered no solution for the language barrier if these people were made unavailable to him.

Complaints of illegal entry have reached as high as city council level when Michael Vargas appeared to protest what had happened at his home.

Vargas explained this week that at the time of the incident he had injured his back and had been unable to work at his job at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, where he has been employed for ten years.

In the process of purchasing an older home on Bradford Avenue, Vargas had moved into his own garage and rented out the big house in order to be able to keep up his house payments during his unemployment.

"I didn't want to go on welfare," he explained, "and through a mistake somewhere my insurance money was held up 15 weeks. I had to have some way to live."

Vargas had rented the house to an Anglo tenant when a city building inspector and a sanitarian from the Orange County Environmental Health Department allegedly called at the house, apparently on the complaint that the garage had been converted to living quarters.

The tenant, who was getting out of bed and heading for the shower, Vargas reports, was surprised to see two strangers standing in the house.

At the city council meeting it was reported that they had allegedly appeared at the back door, had knocked and had no answer and seeing for hearing illegal conversion in progress in the bathroom had entered. There was a bathroom in the house at the time.

Vargas demonstrated this week that it is not possible to see the bathroom from the back door nor even the back kitchen door as a wall and a porch intervene. The tenant was somewhat unnerved by the episode, Vargas reports and has since moved out.

Vargas who was not at home at the time of the inspection, has moved back into the big house. However, this week he posted a For Sale sign on his front door and said that in disgust over the episode he is thinking of leaving the area. He is a native Placentian.

At the time of his appearance at the city council, Vargas related that he had tried to file a complaint against the city "and I felt that I got the run around. Then I tried to see the Chief (of police) and they said that that had nothing to do with him."

"I think the people of Placentia should have the right of privacy. They (inspectors) go in and they don't show any ID at all," Vargas continued.

Mayor Pro Tem William Rashford answered Vargas: "The city story was that the door was open and they could hear some construction going on and they knocked and finally they walked in."

Rashford continued: "One of the problems, there was a certified letter sent to a different location and apparently Mr. Vargas did not

City Receives $18,448.01 From State Program

Placentia City has received $18,448.01 from the state treasurer of California as a result of participation in a Los Angeles Investment Fund.

The new program allows cities, counties and special districts to deposit temporary surpluses with the State of California for investment. The program in the first quarter of its existence earned 8.08 per cent on investments.

Agencies realized from 15 to 26 per cent greater return on their monies than they would have if their monies were placed in a bank pass book account, state treasurer Leslie Lund estimated.

Lund continued: "The 8.08 per cent rate of return through the Local Agencies Investment Fund is a greater rate of return than most major California banks offer on time deposits. It is a very attractive rate."

Under the program, the city has been creating the Local Agencies Investment Fund. Placentia City Council members and staff have been working on the program since January 1, 1977. ## McFadden Group Calls Community Meeting

A Community Meeting of residents in the La Jolla section of the city around McFadden Elementary School has been called for Friday by the members of the Citizens For The Preservation of McFadden School.

Meeting time is 7 p.m. at the Whittier Community Center.

The school is under threat of closure by the board of trustees of the Placentia Unified School District, who have ordered that the property be appraised for disposal.

With pleas to the school board unrewarded, residents of the area have girded themselves for legal action and this will be discussed at the community meeting. Ruth Chauder, chairman of the group reported.

Members of the committee also were expected to speak at Tuesday night's city council meeting on funding available for public and private improvements in the La Jolla section.

Among those mentioned are improvement and completion of the area's parks and refurbishing and rehabilitation of housing.

closing would have on the people, area and the district. The possible advantages of keeping it open were not even alluded to.

So much unanimous accord on a school board, which appears to have become so comfortable with each other that they have difficulty seeing the other side of the forest, could turn out to be a very short sighted equation.

What is education but a broadening of views and expansion of outlook? Man in a tree didn't need a book. And a school board that turns down a golden opportunity to convert McFadden into a unique, cultural asset, might want to climb down out of its tree.

We believe that Stanley Interrante might breathe a little life into the tree. It's a great deal to expect of one man. But it's worth a try.

We hope the people of this district will support the board in appointing Interrante.

There are a number of good reasons. Interrante, perhaps more than any other candidate who sought election on March 8, 1977, according to the people themselves, represents best the people of the district we all expected Salvador Zavala to champion. This is his seat.

He will hopefully not work so closely with the present board that every balanced evaluation will subside before it can be properly examined.

He was next in line in the popular vote of an election held a month and a half ago and at a proper and needed expense to the district.

He is well educated, eager and willing.

It was never promised that democracy would be effortless. But it was intended to hold out the greatest opportunity to all of us. Each and every one.

It doesn't do that. It has been needlessly assassinated. And the teacher has flunked.

Letters To The Editor Was City Council Meeting Legal?

To the Editor:

Failure to follow procedures mandated by state and city codes may have resulted in an illegal meeting of the Placentia City Council recently. A careful study of the Placentia City Charter and the state codes, which have similar language, reveals that a special meeting of the Council, posted and planned by phone on the morning it was held, Monday, March 28, violated at least two key provisions of the code.

As outlined in Paragraph 54957 of the California Civil Code (Deering's, 1974) and Section 612 of the Placentia City Charter on file at the Placentia District Library, all special meetings must start with a 24-hour notice to those expected to participate.

In addition, the code is clear that such a meeting must be called by either the Mayor or three City Councilmen, that an agenda must be prepared and that this written agenda must be delivered to every elected member of the City Council, must be posted 24-hours in advance of the meeting, and must be mailed or delivered, 24-hours in advance of the meeting, to each news media representative with a letter on file with the city.

The city employee responsible for carrying out the notification said last week that she had followed the "usual routine" and had posted a "notice" — not an agenda — and had called the "usual media list." The Deputy City Clerk has been with the city two years. In discussing the matter last week she indicated that she was not aware of any media file containing letters asking for such notification.

Known to be on file with the city are letters from The Register in Santa Ana, which received telephone notice, and the Placentia Courier (written by a former publisher).

Al Hewitt, editor, The Daily-News-Tribune, Fullerton, said that their notification had been by telephone the day of the meeting.

"I think we have a letter on file. I will certainly check. The city must know by now that we wish to be notified. They have been good about calling," he said.

The portion of the code concerning special meetings is part of what is known as the Ralph M. Brown act and it is interesting to note that these code sections clearly state that they are state law in all cities, charter or otherwise.

As the sections are not designed to prevent meetings, but rather to prevent surprise action by only a majority of the Council, provision is made for Council members to "waive" receipt of the agenda.

The code is clear, however, that only those matters on the agenda can be acted upon at a called special meeting.

None of those present at the meeting can recall any member of the Council taking such action.

One reporter, present from the start of the March 28th meeting, called to order soon after 7:30 p.m. by Mayor George De Jesus, said that no written agenda was made available to the press either prior or during the meeting.

Also present in City Hall March 28 were members of the Placentia Founders Society, a local citizens group formed in 1974 with the sole purpose of preserving the home of Placentia City founder A.S. Bradford as a historic site.

The house in question is located at 136 Palm Circle, is city property having been donated in 1974 by the Bradford family, and has been the focus of a long-standing controversy concerning whether it should be preserved or not.

McFadden Discussion Opened

Copy to The Courier
Gentlemen of the Placentia
Unified School District Board:

The La Jolla Community has been an area that has experienced a history of neglect. It is considered a blighted area not because the residents cannot cope with circumstances near to themselves, rather because of the attitudes of some of the worst affluent members of the greater community and that political influences lie outside of the neighborhood.

Decisions affecting these residents are not made by them—if anyone of them has much to say, what direction their own community will go.

The leadership has been gutted out through the upward social mobility of the Mexican Americans moving away for purposes of self improvement. What now remains is a neglected community where all of the unsightly signs of progress are housed: industrial complexes, city yards, automobile wrecking yards, heavy industrial traffic, etc. And now the Placentia Unified School District has considered converting the McFadden School site for auxiliary services offices, a bus barn, garage repair, and a maintenance unit.

The Orange Freeway and the Church

Modernity, the subjugation of the minority by elements in the greater Placentia School community is a painful experience to some residents of the La Jolla area. A modern thoughtless now slices through the heart of the barrio where once stood a chapel servicing the spiritual needs of the people. It is difficult to estimate how much money was paid for that chapel, but that money was used to build a new church on La Palma in Anaheim, and a small decrepit trailer was made available for the La Jolla residents on Gonzales St.

The point being pressed here is that the freeway, the loss of the chapel, and ultimately the demise of McFadden School will contribute to the decline of the neighborhood.

Of course there was once a school called La Jolla, later the name was altered to McFadden Elementary School for purposes of alleviating the negative significance associated with the original name—a name symbolizing segregation and bigotry. Now portions of those school grounds will be sold and developed into industrial sites to offset costs for the new school facilities that are just now under construction for residents other than the La Jolla Community. The John Lyles Elementary School and the Woodshore Elementary School may prove to be as inaccessible as St. Anthony's. Claret though much lip service has been paid to the fact that all of them have been made available to all residents.

Committee Complains

[This is the conclusion of dialogue on two separate occasions between the board of the Placentia Unified School District and members of the board's Educational Facilities Planning Committee. The first segment told of the board's decision to temporarily disband the committee, and of some of the problems the committee has encountered in its decisions, lack of time for proper consideration of important matters and other areas of concern. The narrative continues.]

Concerning the McFadden School decision on closing the school or leaving it open, Mrs. Barbara Williams, chairman of the Placentia Unified School District's Educational Facilities Planning Committee, added:

"I was looking for information on finances and we were given one sheet of paper on fixed overhead costs on McFadden. I wrote out a full sheet of questions on cost during the time our subcommittee met and I gave this to the staff and I got back with half the answers after our third meeting on McFadden, after the vote."

"Since the committee was supposed to consider the economics on it, we really weren't given any information. There weren't any answers. We spent all our time on kids, attendance, areas, map numbers, and boundaries. We didn't look at the whole thing, as we were supposed to. We weren't given the whole picture."

Mrs. Jean Pappas, a board member, asked if the whole committee agreed on wanting that information. Trustee Dr. William Yates later indicated that board members can be refused information if the rest of the board does not agree that the one trustee should have it. He said in some cases he had been refused information but stated following the meeting that what he had been denied was information of personal interest and that it had not affected his decision-making process.

Mrs. Williams said that on another committee decision she had not received requested information on busing costs.

"We weren't told anything about busing nothing. Finally, we were given the information to our committee about a month after the school board voted to change the Sierra Vista boundaries. One of the recommendations for changing the boundaries was to raise busing costs. As a committee we were told that a month after."

Superintendent of Schools, John Jones, said the committee feels they need more information before they can make a decision on the busing costs. He said the information and they'll get it.

"I do not want to dig up old bones either. There are a lot of things about the McFadden situation that the staff did not get up in a public meeting and state."

There is no more to be said along with the past at McFadden except one thing. It is the wrong place. The school was built in 1971, but when Woodshore was built in Anaheim, it had bus stops, kids, but there has to be busing both ways in order to get to school and back and the staff has to be able to get to school. I don't want to dig up old bones, but I want to start a new one. The committee should look at the whole thing, as we were supposed to. We weren't given the whole picture."

And I think that would cause quite a little commotion. I don't know if that's right."

In order to have a balanced McFadden, you need a bus stop of kids on and south of the road. Besides you got a bus stop in front. And we didn't know where we were going to get them from. When you get all those things in there, it just muddies the picture."

Carol Brasky, a parent who is not a member of the committee but has assisted with their deliberations pointed out that the committee takes what the staff gives them and then recommends to the board what the staff has given them and then the board deals directly with what the staff has recommended in the

Local Authors Are Nominees

Three Placentia authors and one from Yorba Linda are among the fifty-five Orange County nominees for the Twelfth Annual Book and Author Awards to be presented on May 2 by the UCI Friends of the Library at the Santa Ana Country Club.

Vick Knight, Modesto M. Diaz, and Norman I. Rudie of Placentia and Alan S. Kaye of Yorba Linda are the three local residents to be honored, and their four works span a wide range of literary interests.

Knight, former assistant superintendent of the Placentia Unified School District, is the author of "Send for Havim Salomon!" The book is a definitive biography of the leading fund-raiser of The Revolutionary War. Knight won the UCI Book and Author Award in 1973 and has written nine other books. Diaz' book, "Lecturas Basicas," is a Spanish text book designed for students who have had one semester of college Spanish or one year of high school Spanish. It's written so as to help the student understand and enjoy not only the language but also the culture of the Hispanic people.

Rudie has written a series of three volumes dealing with the "Principles and Techniques of Radiation."

Major Construction Projects

The Department of Public Works is preparing to start construction on three major projects in various parts of Placentia. All are currently scheduled to begin on April 18.

The Atwood Area Improvements Project consisting of streets, sewers, storm drains, curbs and gutters, sidewalks and lighting is a $0.6 million project being funded entirely by the Economic Development Administration through the Public Works Employment Act of 1976.

Streets to be improved by this project are: Van Buren, Orangethorpe, Sierra Vista, La Paloma, Vincente, Maria, Oak, Atwood, Lincoln, Depot, Cherry and Spruce. Construction by Sully-Miller Contracting Company of Long Beach will take six to nine months to complete. Van Buren Street north of Orangethorpe Avenue will be closed to through traffic for a 30-day period to allow extensive sewer and storm drain excavations.

Phase I of a three phase median island construction and landscaping project will also be underway this month. This phase will provide full landscaping and an automatic sprinkler system along Chapman Avenue between All-America Way and Orangethorpe Avenue.

This project also is made possible through the Public Works Employment Act. Construction by Allied Sprinkler Company will take two months and Phase I will cost $52,000. A City-funded relief sewer project will be underway shortly on Placentia Avenue in the vicinity of Crowther Avenue.

Hypertension, or high blood pressure, affects about 23 million Americans or about one of every seven adults. About half of these are not aware that their blood pressure is too high and only from 10 to 20 percent are being adequately treated.

Hypertension kills about 60,000 Americans each year and is a major factor in another million deaths from cardiovascular diseases. The ironic part of this sad situation is that we now have a number of drugs that your doctor can prescribe to control hypertension. In fact, your doctor can choose from nearly 50 different drugs which are now available.

See your doctor periodically. He may want to check your blood pressure. If he prescribes medication, let us fill the prescription, promptly and precisely.

Merit Sparks Low Tar Boom!

'Enriched Flavor' tobacco seen as major factor in unprecedented smoker move to low tar.

Since its introduction, MERIT has become one of the most popular new cigarettes in twenty years.

A popularity largely responsible for a significant growth in low tar smoking.

The reason: 'Enriched Flavor' tobacco. Tobacco that delivers extra flavor without the usual corresponding increase in tar.

The kind of flavor smokers can switch to—and stick with.

Here are the taste-test results which show why smokers are switching to MERIT. If you smoke, you'll be interested.

© Philip Morris Inc.

Kings: 8 mg. tar, 0.5 mg. nicotine av. per cigarette, FTC Report Dec. 76
100's: 12 mg. tar, 0.9 mg. nicotine av. per cigarette, FTC Method

Warning: The Surgeon General Has Determined That Cigarette Smoking Is Dangerous to Your Health.

Tests Prove Taste

MERIT and MERIT 100's were both tested against a number of higher tar cigarettes. The results proved conclusively that 'Enriched Flavor' tobacco does boost taste without the usual increase in tar.

Overall, smokers reported they liked the taste of both MERIT and MERIT 100's as much as the taste of the higher tar cigarettes tested.

Cigarettes having up to 60% more tar! Only one cigarette has 'Enriched Flavor' tobacco.

And you can taste it.

Golf Tournament Nears

The third annual Arnold Palmer—March of Dimes Golf Championship, sponsored by Placentia March of Dimes committee, promises plenty of action for Orange County golfers.

The benefit tournament will be held at the Alta Vista Country Club Course, 777 Alta Vista, Placentia, Monday, April 25, with tee-off time 12 noon, reports Raul Rangel, chairman.

"We're expecting an enthusiastic turn-out again this year," says Rangel. "Anyone wishing an entry form or information can call me after 4 p.m. at 524-1518." Entry forms are also available at many of the local area golf courses.

Entry fee of $25 includes 18 holes of golf with use of an electric cart, prize fund, awards presentation and banquet dinner. Additional dinner reservations may be made at $7 per person. Golfers may request a foursome of their own choosing.

"Funds from the golf tournament will go toward scoring against birth defects and help win the biggest prize of all—a healthier generation," Rangel added.

"We're proud of the support of Orange County golfers which has made this March of Dimes benefit one of the most successful in the county."

Psoriasis Control Centers

Announces the opening of a new, modern center for the use of the new, long wave infrared light therapy for the treatment of Psoriasis.

This treatment procedure was originally reported in a 1974 medical journal publication. Since that time, it has been used in many medical programs by leading medical centers and has resulted in the complete clearing of the skin in 88% of the patients treated.

To date, this treatment has not received FDA approval and therefore must be considered experimental, pending the completion of an analysis by the FDA.

All aspects of this treatment will be thoroughly discussed during an initial consultation with a licensed physician.

Soccer Signups Now

The Junior United Soccer Association (JUSA) announced this week that in addition to the soccer program for boys and girls ages 7 to 18, a co-ed soccer clinic division will be offered for five and six year old children for the 1977 playing season.

Co-ed five and six year olds will have a short eight game season with limited registration. Players seven to 18 years of age (by December 31, 1977) will play a 12 game season. Practices will start in late July and end with cup play offs extending through early December.

Registration will be held at four locations Saturday, April 23 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in Placentia: Tuffree Park and Golden School; Yorba Linda: Yorba Linda Jr. High; East Anaheim: Boysen (airplane) Park.

Registration donation fees are as follows and will be accepted at the time of registration: five and six years of age $8 per child, 7-18 years of age $18 per single child in a family, $15 for the second child and $12 for the third child. Registration fees this year include the cost of individual and team pictures as well as insurance and soccer uniforms.

The association is presently seeking coaches, managers and referees who will be provided with training prior to the regular playing season. For further information ask the registration official at one of the four locations.

CHAMPIONSHIP form is exhibited by Matt Graeff and Brian Cardenas as they wrestle in the South California title matches won by the local YMCA.

Local Y Wins in Wrestling

YMCA wrestlers from North Orange County cities combined to win the Southern California YMCA championships held at El Dorado High School. Wrestlers, ages 6-15 from Placentia, Yorba Linda, Fullerton, Brea, and La Habra won the tournament by scoring 142 points, 30 points ahead of second place Corona-Norco.

It was the seventh championship for YMCA Coach Bob Stollo. This year his 70 wrestlers here won over 700 matches.

The team celebrated its year with a banquet at the Alta Vista Country Club. The guest speaker was Gene Davis, Captain of the U.S. Olympic Wrestling team who won a bronze medal at Montreal in 1976.

Other guests included Fred Rodriguez, coach of the Cal State Long Beach wrestling team; Don Zellmer, Captain of the Long Beach team and Don Matson, coach of Cal State Fullerton's wrestling team.

After an inspirational talk by Davis, awards were given. Each wrestler was given a travel bag for participation on the team and Howard Lawson of Placentia was awarded the outstanding wrestler's plaque.

In addition, seven high school wrestlers from El Dorado were recognized for their help as assistant coaches. Bob Averill of Yorba Linda, who served as president of the parent booster's club was given a special YMCA award for his outstanding service throughout the entire wrestling season.

The YMCA team runs from November to April of each year and practices at El Dorado High.

Sunshine Schedule

The California Sunshine, Orange County's new American Soccer League entry, will open the 1977 ASI season by hosting their cross-town rival and defending ASI champs, the Los Angeles Skyhawks on Saturday night, April 23rd.

The Sunshine will play 12 home-matches at Santa Ana Stadium, located in the heart of the new Municipal Complex on the corner of Flower Street and Civic Center Drive, including five Saturday night, three Wednesday night, one Friday night, and three Sunday afternoon matches to close out the 1977 Sunshine home season.

Each of the Sunshine's Western Division rivals, the Skyhawks, Sacramento Spirits and the new Santa Barbara Condors will pay three visits to Santa Ana Stadium, while Eastern Division foes Rhode Island Oceaners, New York Apollo and New Jersey Americans come to Orange County, June 10th, July 2nd and July 24th, respectively.

The Sunshine will close out the 1977 ASI season with four consecutive road matches, a three-match trip East to Connecticut, New Jersey and Rhode Island from August 17th-21st, followed by the season finale at Van Nuys against the Skyhawks.

Tickets for all Sunshine matches are available, and cost $3.75 for adults, $1.75 for youth (7-17) with children 16 and under free. Mail orders to the Sunshine at 177F Riverside Ave., Newport Beach, Ca. 92663 or call (714) 963-8888.

Opening game for the Sunshine will be April 23rd at the Santa Ana Bowl. J.U.S.A. will be signing up for the 1977 season April 23 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Tuffree Park and Golden School, Placentia. Yorba Linda Junior High and Boysen (Airplane) Park, East Anaheim.

Troy Wins At Golf

BY BRIAN HILDERBRAND

In non-league golf tournaments this season, El Dorado has turned in fine performances, placing second in their own tournament, and tying for third in the Norte Vista Invitational.

El Dorado fell seven shots behind Troy, the winner of the first annual El Dorado Tournament at Champions at Western Hills Country Club. With a team score of 401, the Troy Warriors earned the first place trophy.

The Hawks finished second with a 408 team score. Alan Shoho fired a 76, the third lowest round of the tournament. Shoho was the only ED golfer to break 80 on their home course for Orange League matches.

In the Norte Vista

Invitational, El Dorado tied for third with Rolling Hills, with a 401 team score. San Marcos won the tourney with a 393 score.

Again, Shoho turned in the low round for the Golden Hawks, firing a 76. Tony Piraino shot a 78, and Doug Effenberger carded a 79 as ED's only players to break 80.

Phil Krikorian and Pat Bednarski rounded out the Hawks' team, shooting 83 and 85, respectively.

Over 40 schools competed in the prestigious tournament.

Honors for Hoop Team

The Cypress College championship basketball team will be honored at the annual banquet at 7 p.m. Wednesday, April 27 at the La Mirada Country Club.

Milwaukee Buck center Sven Nater, who established more records in his two-year career several years ago at Cypress than any other player under coach Don Johnson, will speak to the current state champs.

Cypress won the California Community College title March 17-19, at the 26th state playoffs in Fresno.

Tickets for the event are priced at $6.25 and can be reserved by phone from Karen Pendry, 826-2220, extension 268.

IN THE FUTURE
Dwarf fruit trees may be the future of California's agriculture. The trees reach a mature height of 5 1/2 feet, eliminating the need for ladders to prune, thin and harvest. More dwarfs can be planted to the acre than conventional fruit trees and, best of all in this drought era, the dwarfs use less water.

Roach-Steinke

Yorba Linda Friends Church was the setting for the recent wedding of Cindi Steinke to Danny Roach, Jr. Pastor Glenn Schaffer performed the marriage ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Donald Steinke of Anaheim and Mrs. Katherine Johnstone of Huntington Beach. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Danny Roach of Yorba Linda.

Miss Kristen King served as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Cheryl Steinke, the bride's sister; Melanie Backer, Carol Taylor and Carol Brown. The groom's brother, Mike Roach, was best man. Ushers were another brother, Tim Roach; Keith Hill, Steve Jenkins and Fred Massari.

The new Mrs. Roach wore a formal bridal satin, overlaid with Chantilly lace, beaded bodice with seed pearls, attached cathedral length train. The veil was attached to a headpiece of fresh daisies and babies breath. It was cathedral length and edged with matching Chantilly lace.

The dress and veil were designed and handmade by the bride.

Following a honeymoon in Hawaii the couple established residence in Huntington Beach. Mrs. Roach is manager of Kentucky Fried Chicken there. Her husband works in the same capacity in Fountain Valley.

Venus De Milo Deals In Figures

Attaining the body measurements of a Venus De Milo is everyday work at the new beauty and health salon which opened its doors three weeks ago in the Sierra Vista (Pantre) Shopping Center.

The figure and reducing salon actually is named for the famous Venus de Milo statue and is owned by Marilyn Hildreth (a size 8 from a size 14) and husband Brad, an engineer who helps with the paper work.

Open only to the female sex, the salon, which has been in operation for three weeks, has already attracted 170 members. But there's room for still more, Mrs. Hildreth encourages.

What the salon offers, Mrs. Hildreth explains, is a sure way to lose weight without starvation diets or over exertion.

"What we do really works," Mrs. Hildreth adds. "There are no frills, no toys. You will lose between a half a pound and a pound a day."

The program is based on a high protein-low carbohydrate controlled diet and a systematic program of exercising. The exercising is conducted at the salon and takes approximately 45 minutes a day.

"We use music," Mrs. Hildreth outlines, "and we have fun. It's not an ordeal. There's no measuring or calorie counting on the diet," she continues.

The studio is open Mondays through Fridays from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. and the address is 1854 North Placentia Avenue.

The exercising part of the program is done with equipment manually. There are no machines.

Members of the program are entitled to use the salon daily. The cost of a membership is $68 for three months but during the opening special a fourth month is being added free.

Vitamins and leotards are available at the salon for members who wish to purchase them but they are not required.

"There are no hidden costs," Mrs. Hildreth explains. "That is the entire charge."

Mrs. Hildreth said she became interested in the program because "it worked for me." When a franchise became available in this area, the Hildreths were eager to begin "to help others."

"You'll eat more on our diet but you will lose," Mrs. Hildreth outlines. "There's no starvation." Concerning the exercising program: "We have three people on the floor at all times to work with each member individually. We don't just say, 'Here it is and go to it!'"

The Hildreths have three children, Cathy, 22, who is married to Rick Jeff; Marty, 18 and Connie, 16. Both of the Hildreths' senior, also hold real estate licenses.

"I believe in the Venus de Milo program because it is so successful," Mrs. Hildreth explains. "We really care. We want to get results. We really believe in it."

No appointment is necessary to get information at the salon. Anyone interested is encouraged to drop by anytime that the studio is open. The phone number is 528-5950.

FIGURES ARE FUN at Venus De Milo Salon. Figuring it out here are owner Marilyn Hildreth, June Rolf (in back), Dottie Busser (on the floor) and Pat Smith.

FISH To Be Reactivated

FISH will return to Placentia and Yorba Linda. FISH is a Christian volunteer service whose purpose is to give assistance and meet needs of individuals in the community. It is a "Good Neighbor Policy" that has proved to be successful throughout the United States and England.

Until 1975, FISH was active in Placentia, but was disbanded because it was felt that public transportation had improved sufficiently that the group would no longer be needed. This has not been the case since FISH offers not only transportation for those unable to use public transportation but also many other neighborhood services appropriate in a caring community.

Home dispatchers, driver and volunteers are needed. Persons wishing to attend an organizational meeting are invited to come May 7 at 9:30 a.m. to the First Christian Church at 109 E. Wilshire in Fullerton. For more information about this or the Southern California FISH Conference which will start at noon.

Ventriloquist At Kids Rally

Child Evangelism Fellowship has planned a children's rally for Saturday, April 23. The theme of the rally will be "God Lives Here."

Area Director Vern Mortenson states that the rally will be attended by those children who have been involved in Good News Clubs this year.

The rally will be held from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. April 23 at Wilshire Intermediate School, 315 East Wilshire Avenue, in Fullerton. Special prizes will be given to the children bringing the most guests. Additional information can be obtained by calling the CEF office at 879-8700.

Ed Case, an experienced ventriloquist, will be bringing along his dummy, Woody Woodbin. Rev. Case is a former CEF missionary to Cuba and Mexico. He is currently working for the West Coast Region of CEF. He toured throughout the western states putting on freedom rallies to celebrate the Bicentennial year.

Don Nulty is an accomplished musician who performs with the Gospel Team from Biola College. His specialty is his unique electronic accordion which he will be playing at the CEF rally.

Good News Clubs, which meet once a week, are held in homes throughout the area. The neighborhood children are invited to come to the free clubs. The clubs feature games, singing, Bible verse memorization, and Bible stories. The local chapter of Child Evangelism Fellowship sponsors Good News Clubs in Fullerton, Anaheim, Yorba Linda, Placentia, Brea and Atwood.

Mortenson adds that the public is invited to the rally and parents are especially welcome. "We have a fine team putting on the rally this year," the director states. "Adults and children alike will be captivated with our speaker, Ed Case, and Don Nulty, who will be providing the musical entertainment."

Horse trailers, cars and vans will get a good scrubbing when the youth of Messiah Lutheran Church get at them. They'll be scrubbing and scrubbing at the Luther League Car Wash to be held Saturday, April 23, from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Car Wash

PRACTICE SESSION--Warming up on a horse trailer for the Luther League Car Wash are, from left: Erin Gerber, Placentia; Eric Simon and Cheryl Smith, Yorba Linda and Linda Harris, Placentia.

The car wash will take place in the parking lot of Messiah Lutheran Church, 4861 Liverpool in Yorba Linda. That's one block west of Valley View and a short block north of Yorba Linda Boulevard.

Storkvic says the youth of the church will use car wash proceeds for their upcoming Spring Retreat.

The industrious youth have also held "Slave Days" to raise funds for the retreat which involves high school youth from eight other Lutheran churches in the area.

RDF Film is Unique

"Lord, Lord," a multimedia presentation from Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, will stimulate thought and commitment among viewers at Rose Drive Friends Church Sunday night, April 24 at 6 p.m.

The showing is an 18-minute, four projector, one screen, stereophonic automated multimedia presentation. It attacks the notion that religion is all very well up to a point, and lukewarmness is one's relationship to the Lord Jesus Christ is more than adequate.

An innovative collage of excerpts from speeches given by John R.W. Stott, Paul Little, Tom Skinner, David Howard, John Alexander, Leighton Ford, and many others comprise major sections of the soundtrack. The title song is by IVP recording artist Linda Rich.

The multimedia presentation asks the probing question, "Who holds the reins of our life?" The public is invited to the showing and discussion. Rose Drive Friends Church is located at the corner of Bastanchury Road and Rose Drive in Yorba Linda.

"Covenant Players" At Presbyterians

The Placentia Presbyterian Church will present The Covenant Players, International Repertory Theatre from Los Angeles, in a unique type of worship service, Sunday, April 24 at 9 and 10:30 a.m.

Using a variety of topical dramatic material, both humorous and serious, the Covenant Players are immensely entertaining, but their purpose is much deeper than just entertainment, the church points out. The Players use drama to challenge and stimulate people into a searching look at our complex society and the role and responsibility of the individual within it.

Using minimal props and no scenery, the audience's imagination, and a vast repertoire of one-act plays and vignettes, the Players transport the viewer to a wide variety of settings as they spin an unforgettable program for the entire family, it is explained.

Woman of Year

An honorary award will be presented by the Most Reverend William R. Johnson, Bishop of Orange, to the 1977 Catholic Woman of the Year on Wednesday, April 27, during the Annual Luncheon sponsored by Catholic Services Auxiliary, at the South Coast Plaza Hotel. Tickets to the event are $15.

The public is invited, and should mail reservations to Mrs. William McDonald, Luncheon chairman, Catholic Services Auxiliary, 1612 Spurgeon Street, Santa Ana 92701, those receiving invitations should send in their checks as soon as possible.

Luncheon speaker will be Father Emery R. Tang, O.F.M., who will speak on "Can Success Spoil a Nice Christian Lady?" He presently is active with workshops, retreats and lecturing to diverse groups throughout the country. Father Tang also is a writer, artist and photographer.

Parables Subject For Bible Class

The Parables of Jesus will be subject for an adult Bible class to be taught at the Placentia Presbyterian Church by the two pastors, Jim Long and David Throop.

Meeting on Wednesday evenings in the Upper Lounge of the church, the group will examine in depth, six major parables of Jesus. The meeting schedule includes April 13, The Talents; April 20, The Good Samaritan; April 27, The Rich Man and Lazarus; May 11, The Friend at Midnight; May 18, The Great Banquet and May 25 the Prodigal Son.

Letters--

A ballot measure in the 1975 election failed in a close vote. Those favoring keeping the structure were not satisfied that statements concerning the condition of the home were correct.

Then Mayor Robert Langer, who signed the argument against, said that it was in need of much expensive work to bring it up to code. No actual expert report on the home has ever been made.

In the last regular meeting of 1976, as an off-agenda item, Council was asked by staff to authorize advertising for bids to remove the house.

Between that time the Founders and the Council had worked out what appeared to be a firm agreement which would allow the Founders to assume responsibility for the Bradford House on a $1, per year lease. The Founders agreed to pay insurance costs and started to draw up the lease.

The Founders had obtained a policy which covered the house with $100,000 in fire and $300,000 in liability and had raised the $300, needed to put in force March 1, 1977.

This is where matters stood as of March 28, 1977.

Councilman Betty Mead, in the April 8 issue said: "Members entered the hastily called...meeting having been told it 'would take ten minutes,' she reported.

"The Founders...did not have an attorney...and no member had seen the proposed lease nor was it provided."

What the Founders were apparently told at the March 28 meeting was that, in addition to a city "umbrella insurance policy already in force that they would have to provide a $1 million umbrella policy for the house itself and also take out special workman's compensation policies.

It was indicated that these provision were to be part of any lease agreement.

The insurance already in force was described as not acceptable which would mean a loss of the $300 in civic funds raised for that purpose.

According to The Courier, City Attorney Charles Post III was present at the March 28 meeting.

The California Code, in paragraph 54959, provides that any elected city official who "knowingly" takes part in an illegal meeting is subject to misdemeanor charges.

Councilman Post III said the Founders Society, are afforded the right to challenge the meeting felt to be "illegal" by using the mandamus procedure to force an injunction halting all action taken at the meeting until a legal determination is made in court.

It is interesting that the basis for such action exists.

During the same time frame, where statements from the city have been put forward concerning a "lack of funds" for support of the Bradford House project, Placentia City Council authorized the expenditure of $100,000 in tax funds to support the construction of a new League of Cities building in Sacramento, California, some 400 miles outside the boundaries of the city.

The meeting, as an agenda item, was not subject to a public hearing, and was held in a little public discussion.

One report about the item, was told: "That was an action of the League."

A "fact sheet" prepared by the League of Cities in July, 1976, the Board of Directors, had authorized the purchase of a lot in Sacramento, California, at the cost of $130,000.

As the League is funded by its member cities that expenditure came from taxpayers throughout the state, it would appear.

Placentia, according to the July, 1976 statement, is a three-story structure located at the corner of 4th and K streets, Sacramento at a cost of $130,000.

Costs are itemized in this sheet, by city size.

Placentia's share of the cost was $15,000. It was learned that the "authorization" was accomplished by a vote during the annual conference of the League of Cities in San Diego.

At the time of the vote passed an amendment allowing a majority voice vote to replace the unanimous agreement, which was then binding.

Mayor O'Connell member cities only learned later that part of the language passed on the floor in general session called for revoking membership from any city which did not make the payment.

According to a recent feature story in the Daily News-Tribune, all five Placentia City Councilmen attended the San Diego meeting.

Reported in the story was $1,162 including one dinner tab for eight at $97.28 and another for 11 at $156.63. Spouses, by city policy, are to be billed for their meals.

City of Placentia expended $1,107 to send three members of Council to San Diego. The obligation for the new building in Sacramento is $100,000. A down payment of $15,000.

One source indicated this week that many city representatives had complained about the payments saying that they were not aware of the San Diego meeting.

How the "fact sheet" which was made available is dated from July 14, 1976, and that councils, had they so desired, had time to call public hearings on the funding prior to the San Diego session.

Just in case City Councils, having just fully accepted the funding responsibility for a million dollar plus building in Sacramento, learned that the new budget for the operation of the Orange County League of Cities was going to increase by 33 per cent.

The new budget will be, they were told, $45,654, up $11,325 over the last fiscal year. Funding will be based on 3 cents per resident, rather than the 2 cents used last year.

Various methods are being discussed, but it appears that City of Placentia will pay a minimum of $1,750 to remain in the League of Cities during the coming year.

It is by this action, it can be determined that the meeting of March 28, 1977, was not a legal session; it would appear that members of the Founders, by studying money spent on League of Cities obligations may have found a source of funding for a building which already exists in Placentia.

Home Inspections

receive the certified letter before the inspection took place. I think they should knock on the doors, ring the doorbell, even honk the horn or something and let them know that they are there.

"The way I understand it, no one challenged the inspectors or asked them for any identification and they didn't offer any."

Vargas: "If you're not expecting anybody to come over, how can you challenge them?"

Rashford: "It somebody appeared in my house I would certainly ask what they were doing there."

Vargas: "That is what I am trying to get across to you."

Councilman Donald Holt: "You said your house was not the greatest. Mr. Vargas, that is your home. Your right to privacy is the same as mine no matter where we live. I would be grossly upset if someone entered into my home without permission or a legal search warrant. I would like to have a further report from staff not only on Mr. Vargas but if we are having this problem. This should be stopped."

Vargas: I respect the police but I really felt like I was getting the run around when I asked to file a complaint. A lot of people on city government, have given up after last night (the McFadden School hearing held at the Placentia Unified School Board). That's why we give up. We say, 'let's forget it'."

Vargas said this week that he had

McFadden May Disappear

What guarantee is there that integration will provide the best for our children if the heart is hardened toward the minority community? McFadden Elementary School, like most barrio area schools, existed for the purposes of holding the community together and the children from being integrated with the children of the greater majority population. Through the efforts of citizens of this community, chiefly LULAC members, McFadden Elementary was integrated; and a greater number of Mexican American children began attending predominantly Anglo schools in the Placentia Unified School District. However, ethnic imbalances still remained.

It was not until the Supreme Court ordered schools integrated that an effort was made to totally integrate these "barrio" schools and boundaries aligned to be more inclusive of the Anglo neighborhoods, but not without difficulties with those residents.

What is now proposed for McFadden Elementary School is not an indication that the heart of the more affluent greater Placentia community has become more pliable and softened—rather that the intent is to demolish McFadden Elementary School to placate nearby residents who object to their children being bused to the La Jolla community. We are not proposing that the school become segregated, rather invite those Anglo neighborhoods to send their children to McFadden Elementary School after the Placentia Unified School District has brought up the school to standards after years of neglect.

As the School Goes, So Goes the Neighborhood

The residents may not be aware of the future of their community. There are still great sections in the nearby vicinity currently zoned as residential. However, zonings are as tenuous as school boundary alignments and at the whim of the more influential who may be favored by a change.

To the south of the La Jolla neighborhood, the encroachment of industrial complexes is now evident; and warehouses, businesses, and manufacturing is encroaching from the north squeezing that small Mexican community out of existence.

The coup de grace comes from the least expected—the Placentia Unified School District who in one fell swoop will remove the school largely using those funds when the property is sold (for more industrial sites, school district auxiliary services, maintenance, bus housing, etc.) to save money and finance other schools now under construction. When that school site goes, the City of Placentia will perhaps consider those parcels now zoned residential and in time convert them to industrial uses. Can anyone see the handwriting on the wall as the city considers the widening of Melrose running through the La Jolla community for greater access of industrial traffic?

Why Do Parents Living Outside The La Jolla Community Object To McFadden Elementary School?

To say that we are only concerned about the encroaching blight in the La Jolla community and not our children is erroneous. We are very concerned about our children attending McFadden Elementary; school programs affecting them: achievement in reading, writing, and arithmetic; maintenance of the facility; and the availability of teaching materials appropriate to the children being served.

School district staff has been more guilty of saying and implying about the inadequate school facility now in existence and also that the future of the area necessitates the removal of the school since it ultimately sees no attempt to renovate the area. Declining enrollment is another of the school staff's and school board's excuses to eliminate the school. Sure, the enrollment may be declining, but that has been gerrymandered to serve the Anglo neighborhood in the Rio Vista attendance area. A look at the school district's statistics attests to that fact.

But why do Anglo parents object to sending their children to McFadden School? Is it because Mexican youngsters are more aggressive and the Anglo community considers them more unmanageable? If that is the case, school staff should be more energetic in correcting that situation which is their chief responsibility to insure the safety of every child attending school. Another question arising is whether Mexican children achieve at a lower level than children attending outside the La Jolla community? Again, if that is the case, district and teaching staff must be provided with a greater latitude in developing curriculum and programs that will allow the Mexican youngster to develop on par with their Anglo peers such as bilingual-bicultural education. It appears this is not happening in the Placentia Unified School District.

I wish that a committee of teachers and parents residing in the poverty pockets review achievement and intelligence test scores for their children and a serious attempt is made to bring test scores and teaching more in line with the more affluent sections of the community. As the situation exists, there are serious discrepancies not only in the education that goes on in the classroom, but in other areas as well.

Teachers in the poverty target attendance areas such as Topaz, Ruby Drive, Kraemer, and Valencia for the most part improvise and go without adequate materials. Teaching staffs preside over attitudes and achievement performance non-existent in schools serving the more affluent in the Placentia Unified School District. Facilities-wise, there is no comparison, specifically at Kraemer and Valencia! A walk through Kraemer Junior High School and Bernardo Yorba Junior High School will attest to differences in up-to-date planning in construction. If these older schools are allowed to deteriorate, again it is the responsibility of the district staff to become more energetic and oversee that school facilities are not treated inequitably, like McFadden Elementary School. Perhaps, then, Anglo parents would not object to sending their children to schools like McFadden.

Our Position Is Clear

We urge the Placentia Unified School District Board to take some of those eight or ten million they are receiving from the Alpha Project Redevelopment Agency and use those monies not only to renovate Valencia High School and Kraemer Junior High School, but McFadden Elementary School and keep the facility open. As it is, there is no guarantee that any of these schools will receive an equitable share—the greater portion going to schools that already have too much and perhaps there is already a movement afoot to lure Yorba Linda into the Placentia Unified School District with a new high school.

Barbara Williams and the Educational Facilities Planning Committee, the Placentia Unified School District's hatchet, are perhaps already behind the scenes planning the ultimate fate of Valencia High School and Kraemer Junior High School, much like they did to McFadden Elementary. John Tynes has expressed an interest in that piece of artistry.

Sincerely,

Ruth Chaidez, Chairman

Citizens for the Preservation of McFadden Elementary School

Holt: "I hope we can impress you tonight that this council does listen and is a responsive council to the people of Placentia."

Mayor George De Jesus: "We are you. If you have a problem you go back down to your neighborhood and tell them if you have a problem come to us. We cannot imagine what is going on down there if you never tell us."

City Administrator Edwin Powell interjected that "there were a lot of violations." Powell added that two nights after that "the police had to respond to your place."

Vargas: "They did not respond to my place." Powell appeared to acquiesce.

At the end of the city council session, City Attorney Charles Post III in answer to questions, said that if the inspectors had cause to enter "they would need a search warrant. If they see a violation they can proceed to view the site."

Rashford: "If he (the inspector) is denied entry, he must get a search warrant."

Vargas said this week that he had attempted to lodge a complaint with the District Attorney and had been told that it was a city concern and to return and complain to the city.

He said also that other families in his neighborhood (in central Placentia) had been inspected.

"I wish you could get us a lawyer," he urged. "I'm making an appeal for an attorney to help the people. It doesn't do any good to go to the city for legal aid. Nobody listens."

"Maybe I should wire the governor," Vargas contemplated.

Because of the inspection, Vargas now faces expensive renovations and permits before he can live in his own home and has had to tear out some of the improvements he put in, a relative reports.

Vargas said also that he is going into business for himself doing all kinds of yard work and that he is available at 528-1239.

[Next week another homeowner, who speaks only Spanish, states that his property was entered without his permission.]

first place."

Mrs. Brazsky said that in the Tynes boundary discussions that the principal of Morse School was unaware that it might affect his school's boundaries. "Now how can the people know if the principal didn't even know."

"How can the committee make an intelligent recommendation to the board if they don't know the costs involved for the things they are supposed to be deciding on. Cost is one of the primary problems of anything you do. They must know all the costs involved in order to make an intelligent recommendation to the board. It seems to me that they should have all the information, figures, costs, et cetera at the beginning."

Tigers Trim Highlanders

BY COLEEN COLE

Making up for a loss against Brea early last week, P. L. Valencia's varsity baseball team defeated the La Habra Highlanders 5-4 in an away game last Friday.

Due to exceptional defensive plays in the seventh inning of the game, the Tigers were stopped one run short of a tie. The loss was credited to pitcher Mike McCall.

Senior Carl Hill was the starting pitcher for the game Friday, but was relieved by Steve Seratino in the sixth inning. Seratino was then relieved by Don Reynolds in the seventh inning. Excitement entered the game in the sixth inning when the Highlanders brought in one run, breaking the tie score of 2-2.

A Valencia single by Frank Martinez in the seventh started off the Tiger rally. Teammate Nick Garcia reached first after his hit forced Martinez out at second. Mike McCall reached base on a walk, and an astounding hit by Hill brought all three base runners in safely, putting the score at 3-3.

La Habra rallied with two quick doubles in the bottom of the seventh inning, bringing in one run.

The game was ended when the Tigers scored a double play against the Highlanders. A fly-out was hit to rightfielder McCall, who cut down a runner at third. Final score was 5-4.

Yesterday, the Tigers played on the home diamond against rivals Esperanza.

Results were not available at press time.

Valencia will face cross-town rival El Dorado away on Friday, with the game scheduled to start at 3:15.

Phillips Hurls No-Hitter

BY BRIAN HILDERBRAND

Ted Phillips kept El Dorado's hopes of a CIF playoff berth alive, hurling a no-hitter to blank Canyon, 3-0 on Friday.

The lefthander chalked up nine strikeouts, (he struck out the side in both the second and fifth innings), and walked only two. The walks proved to be Canyon's sole baserunners. While not overpowering, Phillips has excellent control to rack up his fifth career no-hitter.

In his Orange League debut as a sophomore, Phillips tossed a no-hit gem against Sonora. In Big League baseball, he picked up three more.

Though it was his fifth, Phillips called it "The most exciting, because it's at the varsity level."

El Dorado got on the board in the second inning. Chris Vidovich led off by getting on via an error, and took third on Mark Ashford's single. Bill Cass then grounded out to second, allowing Vidovich to score.

Another sacrifice led to the Hawks' second run, in the third inning.

Dave Nagy drew a walk with one out. Mark Hilliard gained a two base error off the shortstop's wild throw, putting runners at second and third.

Jim Hawn then hit a long fly ball to right to bring in Nagy for the Hawks' insurance run.

and put the score at 2-0. Cass picked up another RBI on a sacrifice in the sixth inning as ED tacked up their third run.

Ashford led off with a single, but the ball got by the centerfielder, and Ashford ended up at third. Cass then delivered with a sacrifice fly to right, knocking in Ashford to produce the 3-0 final.

The win upped the Hawks' record to 2-0 in league; while their season mark stands at 6-10-2.

There were two significant defensive plays that enabled Phillips to complete his no-hitter.

In the fourth inning, Mike Byars of Canyon put down a bunt between the mound and the plate. Cather Dan Dix came up with the ball and fired to first, just ahead of the runner.

Later, Phillips said that he had no chance on the ball, and commended Dix for making the play.

Another fine play was turned in by third baseman Greg Fredrickson in the seventh inning. Greg Mayes, Canyon's leadoff batter, hit a grounder to short. Fredrickson came across in front of the shortstop and made a quick throw to get Mayes at first. Both plays killed potential hits.

El Dorado took on third place Brea yesterday in a road game, and will host Valencia on Friday in a 3:15 game.

Anaheim Stuns Troy

by Scott Emblidge

Troy High School's baseball team is still in first place in the Freeway League but now it is a three-way tie for the lead due to a stunning upset of the Warriors by Anaheim last Friday 1-0.

Troy had whipped Lowell 17-10 on Tuesday and fully expected to defeat the Co'onists whom they easily beat earlier this year 7-1. Anaheim had not won a league game going into the contest.

Steve Lavering pitched a six hitter, but in the bottom of the seventh inning, Anaheim's pitcher, Bob Queryl, hit a run-scoring single to win the game. Queryl allowed Troy just five hits.

Against Lowell, the Warriors were a different team. They collected 19 hits and scored 17 times to support the pitching of Wayne da area and the past four seasons have been very successful, the group reports. Pop Warner Youth Football is one of the oldest, most highly regarded youth programs in the nation, the group states. One big feature of the 1977 program is that every boy is guaranteed he will play in every game. This is a new policy of PYL Pop Warner.

Boys who register will be placed in a division of play which fits his age and weight. Below is the age and weight structure for each division:

Might Mite, 8-9, 50-80 lbs., (for boys who have never played contact football before); Jr. Pee Wee, 9-10, 50-85 lbs. and Pee Wee, 9, 10, 11, 65-95 lbs. and 12, 65-79; Jr.

Macques, Brian Faulders and Doug Kennedy which, for the first time this year, was weak.

The story of the Lowell game was right fielder John Christensen. The junior set a school record batting in six runs on two home runs, a triple and two singles. He went five for five and scored four times himself.

Christensen wasn't Troy's only offense though. Lance Brewer, Steve Burr, Lavering, Eric Leiper and Jeff Smith each had two hits. Catcher Jeff Knox, Brewer, Lavering and Leiber all scored twice also.

The loss lowered the Warrior's record to 6-2 and caused a logjam at the top of the standings. Savannah and Magnolia share the lead now with Troy. The Warriors will have a showdown with Magnolia this Friday at Glover Stadium.

Dick Pappas For Boys State

Junior Dick Pappas will represent Valencia at the American Legion Boy's State Conference this year.

Pappas was recently selected at a dinner held at the Local American Legion Hall. The selection was based on academic ability, leadership and school involvement.
